The Apartment Association of Greater Augusta is a member driven organization whose primary purpose is to promote and protect the interests of the multi-housing industry.

An affiliate of the National Apartment Association in Washington, DC and the Georgia Apartment Association in Atlanta, AAGA works to achieve its purpose through three primary areas:

Legislation – as the local advocate for city, state and national legislation beneficial to the apartment industry and free enterprise; Education – Offering a number of various programs and seminars for multi-housing professionals; and Communication – Using our various publications and programs to keep members informed on issues and events pertinent to the apartment industry.

In addition, the Apartment Association of Greater Augusta conducts membership meetings featuring qualified speakers on a variety of industry relate topics. These meetings give members the opportunity to network with fellow property owners, professional managers and industry suppliers on a regular basis.

THE PERCENTAGE OF NON-DEDUCTIBLE NAA DUES FOR 2012 IS 22%
